Dr. Roger Schultz (Team Chair)
Superintendent/President, Mt. San Jacinto College

Roger W. Schultz is the Superintendent/President of Mt. San Jacinto College, a position he has held since 2008. He joined MSJC in 2001 to fill the position of Vice President of Student Services, where he also served as interim Vice President of Instruction. Mt. San Jacinto College currently serves more than 18,000 students throughout a 1700 square mile district with five instruction sites. Dr. Schultz received a bachelor of arts in broadcast journalism from the University of Southern California, a master’s degree in communication management from the University of Southern California’s Annenberg School of Communication, and a doctorate in Leadership for Higher Education from Capella University. He currently serves on the board of the California Community College Athletic Association as the organization's treasurer, the Capella University Community College Advisory Council, in addition to various local and community groups. Dr. Schultz has previously served on multiple Accreditation External Evaluation teams. His experience in higher education dates back to 1988, when he worked at the University of Southern California for several years. He also served as Dean of Admissions, Records and International Education at Long Beach City College.

Ms. Kristen Grimes (Assistant Team Chair)
Administrative Associate, President’s Office, Mt. San Jacinto College

Kristen Grimes joined the administrative support team in the President’s Office of Mt. San Jacinto College in 2004. She has extensive experience in Shared Governance, Board Policies/Administrative Procedures, and Accreditation. Prior to joining the President’s Office she was a member of the Instruction Division, and also served as Classified Senate President while simultaneously taking classes and completing her degree at Mt. San Jacinto College. She also taught Office Technologies where she enjoyed sharing her knowledge of the Microsoft Office programs and connecting with students in a different capacity.

Mr. Michael Adams
Facilities Administrator, Mendocino College (Retired)

Michael Adams retired from Mendocino College after 28 years of service, and is currently a consultant for school facilities planning. While at Mendocino, he assisted the Superintendent/President during the design and construction of the new campus, and was Director of Facility Services & Planning where he managed security, safety, transportation, grounds, custodial and more. Adams has chaired or served on several Accreditation teams in the past.
Mr. Brian Greene
Faculty Librarian, Modesto Junior College

Brian Green is a faculty librarian at Modesto Junior College. Prior to arriving at Modesto in 2013, he was a library director at Columbia Gorge Community College in The Dalles, Oregon, and librarian at Columbia College in Sonora, CA. Greene earned his MLIS from the University of Washington.

Dr. Susanna Gunther
Mathematics Professor, Solano Community College

Susanna Gunther is a professor in the Mathematics department at Solano Community College. She is also the past president of the Solano College Academic Senate and Past President of the California Math Council for Community Colleges (CMC3). Previously, she has served as the Basic Skills Coordinator for Solano Community College and was active in the initial statewide implementation of the Basic Skills Initiative. Her recent pursuits include serving on the Steering Committee for the Common Assessment Initiative (CAI), the Multiple Measures Workgroup for the CAI, and the Vendor Selection and Review Committee for the CAI. Dr Gunther has also served on her local union’s negotiating team, and presented at the state academic senate’s 2014 Spring Plenary as a member of the Accreditation Committee of ASCCC.

Dr. Jeanine Hawk
Interim Vice President, Administrative Services, Napa Valley College

Jeanine R. Hawk brings over 20 years of experience in higher education. She served as vice-president of finance/chief financial officer at Alliant International University, vice chancellor of administrative services in the San José- Evergreen Community College District, and served for several months as that district’s acting chancellor. She previously held vice presidential positions in the Santa Monica Community College District and at De Anza College, and currently serves as the interim vice-president, administrative services for Napa Valley College. Hawk holds a master’s degree in business administration (MBA) from Southern Oregon University and a doctorate in Educational Leadership from SFSU.
Dr. Angelina Hill
Director of Institutional Effectiveness, College of the Redwoods

Angelina Hill is the Director of Institutional Effectiveness at College of the Redwoods where she serves as the College’s Accreditation Liaison Officer. She is in her fourth year at College of the Redwoods, and has also worked at the University of Las Vegas as the Director of Assessment and Policy Analysis in Enrollment Services and the Associate Director of Academic Assessment. Prior to her work in educational effectiveness, she was a visiting faculty of psychology at the University of Southern Mississippi. Dr. Hill received her bachelor’s degree from UC Santa Cruz and her doctoral degree in Cognitive Psychology from the University of Notre Dame. She has authored professional research publications in perception and psychophysics, and the use of technology in education.

Ms. Joyce Johnson
Dean, Career Technical Education & Economic Workforce Development
Mt. San Jacinto College

Joyce A. Johnson is Dean of Career Technical Education & Economic Workforce Development at Mt San Jacinto College (MSJC). Ms. Johnson joined MSJC in 1998 as a faculty member in the Department of Nursing and Allied Health and in 2007 accepted the position of Dean. Her professional career consists of 25 years as a registered nurse and 20 years’ experience working in the California Community College system. She provides leadership to 18 Career Technical & Educational Programs and oversees a robust Continuing Education & Workforce Training Department. Her committee work includes the Assessment Council, Enrollment Management, Accreditation Steering Committee, Strategic Action Leadership Team, Curriculum, Institutional Program Review Committee, and the CTE Advisory Council. Ms. Johnson has been instrumental in leading the college to secure grant funding to support career educational programs and workforce development.

Mr. Edward Knudson
Superintendent/President, Antelope Valley College

Edward Knudson started at Antelope Valley College in June of 2013 and is serving as the Superintendent/President. As a Vietnam-era Army veteran, Knudson’s 30 years of management experience includes four years as a non-commissioned officer in the Army, 10 years in the hospitality industry and 15 years in higher education. He began teaching at Oregon State University in 1989, and has since served on faculty at the University of Georgia, Western Oregon University, and community colleges. He began full-time service in community colleges in 1993 at Linn-Benton Community College in Albany, Oregon, where he made the transition into education management as a department chair of business management and as division director of business and computer systems. In 2002, he accepted a position as dean of economic and workforce development at Bakersfield College, where he was appointed vice president of academic affairs in 2006. He accepted a position as executive vice president at Moorpark College 2009 - 2011. Knudson earned both his bachelor’s and master’s degrees from Oregon State University.
Dr. Gina La Monica
Career Technology Education Trainer, CCCAOE Leadership Academy

Gina La Monica was recently appointed by CCCAOE as a CTE trainer for the state of CA teaching in the leadership academy. Additionally, she was appointed to the California Community College League advisory board whose responsibility is to review new community college legislation. Dr. La Monica began her management experience at Ventura College as a Career Technical Education and Off-Site Interim Dean, and moved on to start a career technical education division from inception at College of the Canyons. She was a regional trainer for the Chancellor’s Office, and her teaching and management experience includes 2 and 4 year colleges, as well as private 4 year higher education institutions. Her expertise includes distance education, workforce development, career technical education, adult learning, teaching, and curriculum development. Dr. La Monica earned her doctorate from Pepperdine University in Institutional Management, and bachelor's and master's degrees in Kinesiology and Exercise Physiology. She started her educational career at Los Angeles Mission College as a tenured professor, was the Director of PACE (an accelerated adult learning program), and started several PACE type programs at other higher education institutions.

Dr. Victoria Rosario
Associate Vice Chancellor of Student Services, Los Rios Community College

Victoria Rosario is the Associate Vice Chancellor of Student Services at the Los Rios Community College District in Sacramento. Dr. Rosario has been with Los Rios since 2000 and has served in various other administrative roles at the Los Rios District, Folsom Lake College and Sacramento City College, as well as holding faculty assignments at Santa Barbara City College and Irvine Valley College. Previously, Dr. Rosario was the statewide coordinator for matriculation at the system office for the California Community Colleges, and a specialist in the transfer and articulation unit. She received her doctorate in Educational Leadership and Administration from Drexel University, her masters in counseling from Cal State Long Beach, and her bachelors in English from the University of Hawaii at Manoa. This will be Dr. Rosario’s sixth time serving as a visiting accreditation team member.

Dr. Timothy Woods
Vice President of Instruction, Fresno City College

Timothy Woods earned his doctorate in Applied Management and Decision Science - Information System Management (PhD, AMDS-ISM) from Walden University. He is also a graduate of the political science department from the University of California, Riverside and holds a master's degree in international relations from California State University, Fresno. Dr. Woods has worked in higher education for the past 20 years teaching in the fields of management, business administration, and management information systems. He has served as a Dean for the College of IS&T, Dean of Computer Technology & Information Systems, and as a Dean of Business. He is currently serves as Vice President of Instruction at Fresno City College.