The image above depicts a ceremonial Maidu Flicker Feathered Band. This band is worn horizontally over the forehead and is typically made of feathers, quills and other fibers. The Maidu are native to this region of California.

Thursday November, 3
NATIVE WELCOME

This is a celebration of Native American Students at Butte College. Join us for a meet and greet, enjoy some food and friends.

11:00-1:00 @CCC

Tuesday November, 8
ISHI: THE LAST YAHl

Film and discussion on what some believe is the last Yahi, the last surviving group of the Yana people in Northern California. The discussion will focus on the changing ecology in the landscape following the loss of native people.

7:30 - 9:30 @ Chico Center 157

Wednesday November, 9
REVEALING YOUR TRUE COLORS

This is a three hour workshop where you will learn how you are like and dislike others by using an easy & highly effective communication and personality tool using a Native American focus. Must register 530-895-2813 or ccc@butte.edu

1:00 - 4:00 @ Center for Excellence

Wednesday November, 16
FOR THE NEXT 7 GENERATIONS

You are invited to a special community screening to celebrate the Grandmothers’ vision and unite your voice with their call to heal the planet through their indigenous practices and their ancient wisdom.

11:00 - 1:00 @ CCC