Child Support Paid Verification
2014-2015

Your application was selected for review in a process called “Verification.” Complete this form only if it was requested by us. Go to “Required Documents” in MyBC to see if it was requested.

WHAT YOU NEED TO DO
On the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA), you/your spouse or your parents (if you are a dependent student) reported a value for child support paid.

- If you reported child support paid for a child or children not included in your FAFSA household size, review the definition, below, of child support paid, then provide the information requested in the table.
- If no child support was paid, check the box below the table confirming that there was a reporting error, sign the form, and return it to our office.

NOTE: Child Support Paid is NOT the same as Child Support Received. This form should be used only to confirm amounts PAID in child support.

Child Support IS:
1. The amount of child support you/your spouse or your parents (if you are a dependent student) paid because of a divorce or separation or as a result of a legal requirement in 2013.
2. For a child/children NOT living in the same household as the student.

Child Support IS NOT:
1. Money paid by student/spouse or by a dependent student’s parents for child day care expenses.
2. For child/children living in the same household as the student.

EXPLANATION OF CHILD SUPPORT PAID
In the table below, provide the name of the person who paid child support in 2013, the relationship to student, the name of the person to whom child support was paid, the name of the child(ren) for whom support was paid, and the annual amount paid.
